

Mystic, CT | Meet the Artists & Artisans – Olde Mistick Village

The 44th Annual Juried Shows are celebrated July 22/23 & Sept 2,3,4
I-95 Seaport exit# 90 FREE Admission & Parking Held Rain or Shine

Held on the tree shaded lawn facing I-95 exit 90N, exhibitors chosen for their unique forms of fine art and hand crafted articles discuss and work on location, as the public views paintings, ceramic vessels, sculptures, carving, sketches, portraits, drawings, which appear before them. Favorite exhibitors join newly discovered participants from Maine to Florida who delight in talking about and reviewing their original creations with visitors/collectors.

Fine artists include; Kenneth Aunchman - Soft edged oils of beaches, boats, sea; Susan Baker-Handmade copper, pearl, gemstone jewelry; Barbara Berkowitz-FROCKKS-Whimsical, fun loving painted rocks; The CT Limner-Stillied violins/cellos, host goddess musicians, and ancient painted panels; David Del Biondo - Caribbean-sea life/underwater photos;

Figure 2: Fran Henderson,

Bill Dougal - Caricatures drawn on the spot; Bruce Dumas - Realistic acrylic nature/harbor, marine, scenic CT paintings; Susan Harrington - Soapworks; Don Hart - Hand crafted writing instruments; Eric Heitman: Nature-inspired, contemporary paintings; Fran Henderson-Oils painted on site as fogbound Nantucket, Cape Cod shorelines appear; Joan Kubinec - Quilts-home ware; Susan Lanphear - Beeswax-honey, natural skin products: Kim L'Heureux - Flame kilned-decorative, functional pottery; Debby Lindsley - Whimsical painted accents; Jennifer LaVoine - Mixed media and nautical art: Brian Lee-Exotic creatures in their jungle habitat photographed ; Riri Levine-sculpts, shapes, molds, clay vessels, and incised table ware; Ken Lindgren – Wonders of wood; Anna Liss - Victorian/Art Nouveau- polymer clay, free form wearable jewelry; Ronet Noe - Paints acrylic joy, on oversized canvases in brilliant colors for modern collectors on site: Paul Nguyen -

Figure 1: Bruce Dumas

Travels the world over photographing nature and unusual landscapes; John Pattenden - Collages of iconic inventions, patented drawings, and Mystic photos; Hillary Rezendes - Makes nautically inspired 14Kt and sterling silver jewelry; Tom Sayers-"On the Wing-fabulous bird photography; Claudine Burns Smith-Colorful glazes on sculptural, hand built functional pottery; Dennis Stuart- Oil paintings of CT; Linda Testone - Hand painted mail-boxes, bird houses, buoys, barrel slats, and slates; Evelyn Villegas - Hand-made silver jewelry designs, based on ancient Peruvian techniques: Lise Weller - Fused, dichroic, glass, holographic sculpture to wear; Raelinda Woad - Story Teller miniature books, and magical treasures. The Connecticut Limner is still accepting applications, please check the website.

203.874.5672 |

meettheartistsandartisans.com |

info@meettheartistsandartisans.com